

DEAR SENATOR:

The U.S. government should impose sanctions on any country that:

- Builds settlements on land it illegally occupies. Israel offers financial inducements and tax breaks to entice settlers, and provides floodlights, roads, power, and even guards for new outposts every day.
- Constructs a wall outside its own borders. Israel is bulldozing Palestinian orchards, farms, businesses, and homes to make way for the separation wall. The wall extends deep into Palestinian territory in order to include illegal Israeli settlements, and isolates Palestinians from their fields, workplaces, hospitals, schools and water sources.
- Restricts the freedom of an entire population. Israel subjects Palestinians to collective punishment by random closures and curfews, and assassinates Palestinian leaders and activists and innocent civilians in their vicinity.
- Bombs a sovereign nation. Israel's Oct. 5 attack on its peaceful neighbor, Syria, flouts international law. Please delay U.S. aid and loan guarantees to Israel until Israel tears down the wall, evacuates settlements, and withdraws to internationally accepted borders.

East European construction workers build the foundations for a group of new houses in the illegal outpost of Maale Haroe, south of the West Bank town of Nablus, on July 28, 2003. After the June 4, 2003 launch in Jordan of President George W. Bush's road map to peace, a handful of outposts were dismantled in a blaze of publicity. According to Peace Now activist Dror Etkes, 12 others have since been established. The road map, which Israeli Prime Minister Ariel Sharon endorsed, demands Israel remove more than 60 outposts set up since he came to power as part of measures leading to the creation of an independent Palestinian state by 2005.
